WEEK 6 QUIZ

1. If GIR is King, what is the Queen, and how is the Queen defined?

2. How many shots out of 20 do you eliminate when you create your Shot Zone? Why? _____

3. Suppose your 7-iron Shot Center is 5 yards right and 7 yards short of the target. If the hole is in the front right part of the green, where do you aim and try to hit the ball from a 7-iron distance?

4. State, as best as you can, "The Rule." _____

5. Give two examples of dark shaded areas. Give two examples of medium shaded areas. Dark: _____

Medium: _____

6. When faced with a standard chip or pitch, is it more important to get closer to the hole or to leave yourself an uphill putt? Why?

7. The most important thing when facing a difficult greenside shot is what? _____

8. When a pin is tucked toward the edge of the green, from what yardage are you allowed to aim at the hole? _____

9. A fairway is 30 yards wide. 10 yards left of the fairway is OB. Right of the fairway is medium rough for 50 yards. Your Shot Zone with a driver is 40 yards wide. Where should you aim your driver? _____

10. This is the eighth hole of a tournament course. From the tees marked, the hole is a 6-iron distance for you. The hole is cut where it is marked as well. The green is about 15 yards wide (horizontally) and 30 yards deep (vertically) where the hole is cut.

Where do you aim? Show this by drawing your Shot Zone and Shot Center. Why aim here?
